

Youths band together for fun

YOUNG Baysiders packed the Wynnum PCYC for the annual Youth Injected Festival on May 20 and 21.

The two-day music, arts and sports festival kicked off with Battle of the Bands which was won by the band Shades of Grey and an encouragement award was handed to Mugen-Jin.

Festival organisers were impressed with contestants' professionalism during the competition which was all about "showcasing their skills and talent".

Emina Ajanovic from BABI Youth and Family Support thanked Brisbane City Council for the funding.

The fourth annual festival was the biggest and most popular to date.

Free rock climbing, jumping castle and craft activities were popular with enthusiasts.

DJ Sauce kept fans entertained and there were break-dancing and beat-boxing performances and workshops.

Break dancing ... youngsters showed up in droves for the annual Youth Injected Festival.

Helping special school in a good fashion

LOCAL women will show off their modelling skills and some of the winter fashions next Thursday.

Bayside Women's Social Club has organised a fashion parade in support of Darling Point Special School on June 8.

Women of all ages and sizes were invited to model the clothes by Miller's.

There will also be entertainment and a talk on Darling Point Special School.

The fashion parade is on Thursday, June 8, at Wynnum Municipal Hall, corner of Bay Tce and Cedar St, Wynnum.

The program starts at 10am and costs $6.
